

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course title: Sustainable tourism

Study programme and level: Tourism Enterprise Management,
Undergraduate professional study programme, 1st level

Prerequisites:

/

Content (Syllabus outline):

The definition of sustainable development with sustainable according to environmental pressures

- Definitions and problem definition
- Requirements for continuous development and environmental limitations
- Indicators of sustainable tourism

Economic, social and environmental aspects of sustainable development

- Economy of the environment and the greening of economics
- Social aspects
- Environmental aspects

Environmental and tourism policy of the EU and Slovenia

- environmental policy in EU (policies)
- environmental policy-Slovenia (directions)
- tourism policy in EU (objectives, measures and tools)
- tourism policy in Slovenia (objectives, measures and tools)

-planning of tourism development in Slovenia and its regions

- traditional economical approach
- spatial approach (land use)
- Tourism-planning for the host community
- Sustainable approach oriented to integrated tourist development and planning